BURCH DAHLIA SEED

Dahlia lovers will know from one glance at our list of varieties that this seed will come from the aristocracy of dahliadom. We grow the finest exhibition dahlias that we are able to purchase, and when finer varieties are introduced we shall promptly add them to our seed garden. With few exceptions we are growing the entire Rolls of Honor.

Dahlia seed, $2.00 per 100 (our selection of seed parents); $3.00 per 100 (seed parent named by purchaser). We suggest that our customers name a second or third choice of seed parents in case we should be out of seed from the first requested.

BURCH DAHLIAS FOR 1931

FRIEDA FRANK-Scarlet, lighter at tips, with an orange reverse. It is a semi-cactus and large. It has a good stem and is one of the showiest dahlias ANNA CHARLTON—Rhodamine purple. This is a large decorative on a perfect stem. The best large lavender variety we have ever grown. Roots, $10.00 PEARL MARIE—Amaranth purple. This is an American Cactus on a perfectly straight stem. It produces a profusion of 8 to 9 inch blooms. One of our blue ribbon baskets at the Biltmore was composed entirely of this variety Roots, $10.00 CAROLYN LEWIS—Gold, with tips of deep crimson. This is a large, shaggy MARY ALICE—Deep spectrum red with reverse streaked golden showing FORMER BURCH ORIGINATIONS ALTA RAY-Salmon-orange decorative. This dahlia was on the Sunkissed Roll of Honor, scored 90 to win a Certificate of Merit, etc. We have never DONNA LOU—Light pink decorative. This dahlia is very prolific, always on a perfect stem, and is hard to beat for a commercial cut flower.....Roots, $2.50 FLORENCE FLORY-Maroon is the nearest to black that any color can become without becoming black. Now try to imagine a "black" semi-cactus with a wire stem and all the extra fancy trimmings of a perfect commercial FRANK MILLER-Picric yellow. A flat decorative on the Sunkissed Roll of RUTH TYSON-Orange yellow. This dahlia is the best commercial decorative that we have ever grown. The blooms average 8 to 10 inches, with a stem so rigid that when cut three feet and horizontally held it does not lose its TOMMY BURCH-This is a bi-color. A decorative white petal edged with a GENERAL COLLECTION Albert H. Vestal. D .- Old rose; 9 to 11 inch blooms, good stem, petals twisted and curled$7.50 Altamont. D .- Rose pink, deepening to American Beauty rose toward center; large flowers with long, slightly curled petals.....$2.00 Ambassador.
